FASHION PICTURE, SPRING, 1956 . . . Preparing for the El Camino College Faculty Wives club fashion show to be held at the Campus Center, 8 p.m., Thursday, March 22, are: (l-r) Ella Schwartz, Mrs. Patsy Moses, and Mrs. Sally Timpe. The show will be presented by the Sam Levy Department Store. Press Photo.

New Spring fashions will cease to be merely silk pictures in the style magazines and will step into reality when the newest clothes for 1956 from the Sam Levy Department Store are presented at the El Camino college Campus Center at 8 p.m., Thursday, March 22.

This is the second annual fashion show to be sponsored by the members of the El Camino College Faculty Wives club.

Proceeds from the affair will go to increase the El Camino Faculty Wives Students Loan Fund, Mrs. Carl G. Afwedson, president, announced.

"The loan fund," according to Mrs. Afwedson, "has helped keep many students in school by supplying small but desperately needed loans to them without any interest payments."

Mrs. Edward Schwartz who has coordinated the fashion production said that the show is unique in having both professional models and faculty wives as models.

Mrs. Schwartz is a faculty wife herself, as well as being connected with the Sam Levy Department Store which is presenting the show.

"The show," said Mrs. Schwartz, "will feature high style on a low budget, which is most important to all of us."

Mrs. John E. McQuerry, chairman, announced that friends of the college, faculty wives, and guests are welcome to attend.

Tickets may be obtained from any member of the Faculty Wives club, or they may be purchased at the door on the evening of the 22nd.

Maude Miller, noted fashion columnist, will present sparkling fashion commentary during the show.

The committee of Faculty Wives: Mmes. Albert Karr, George Watt, Martin Yez, and Woodrow Dunlap.

Serving will be: Mmes. Calvin Greer, Charles Bluske, John Dobbin, Joseph Dzieda, Fred Hile, Hale C. Pickett, Arthur Beale, Peter Mel, Robert Patch, and Lloyd Newcomer.

They are all wives of the faculty of the rapidly growing El Camino college which now numbers 6,609 students, many of them from foreign countries.
